HOME TRUTHS.

invite the attention of our readers, and of Sectt Whigs, to the following extracts last Wilmington Commercial: ill be observed that we do not object to the platform, but to the northern supporters of o declare they will not be bound by it. We the counsels and repel the political embrace who sacrificed Fillmore for no other reason he was faithful to the constitutional rights but he was This alone would be enough for us; have added to this malicious act, the perfidy to abide by the conditions upon which Convention consented to nominate Scott. is very plain to our mind, and is well under-regard to Gen. Pierce: We have noted the athis integrity and political consistency, afied, entirely satisfied, that he is sound o the Constitution, Southern Institutions. ohts of the South. We have seen, in our character are about as clumsily manufactured emercial parlance,) " not merchantable and no ward to Gen. Scott: We have no reason to soundness in the above particulars. We of assailed his political or private character: assaulted in the second and accompany he keeps—those who generated and forth his nomination to whom we object. the deadly enemies of the South and foes measure that tends to our peace and security. grady Scott-men who voted against the Platform South, even if the result were a dissolution What-league with such men in al harmony, and help them to elect a candidate they will have the right to manage, whether a so or not? No-we cannot give to the andellowship, whatever pageant they may preour admiration and approval—or however out to grace an electioneering farce—or whatarty name they may assume. If they are bona thigs, why then, treason lurks beneath the of that honored name.

think that these men will have no influence Scott for evil if he were elected. We cannot this; they have managed him pretty well, so will never slack their hold upon his gratitude and will hevel state they are the authors of his politwing and his instructors as to his duty. Those wink Scott is too firm, and-so-forth, to be manby these men—to be cajoled and wheedled, and threatened to answer their nefarious purposes, of studied the character of Man, however well may be versed in that of Scott.

L. Otey, B. B. Smith and M. A. Bledsoe.

The Club was addressed by Gen. Saunders, P. Bushes, J. Nixon, and Gen. Singeltary. The course not-no one supposes that any effort of umble self could produce consequences of this The idea is too ridiculous for serious entertain-Neither do the honest patriotic and talented whose advice and counsel we covet and rescalculate on such a consequence, from this cause. whate told the public, through our columns, what esign in voting for the greatest statesman of the Webster-they only wish to vindicate their that is all. They prefer this to being and sold by northern freesoilers and abolitionthe calves in the shambles—that is all, for the Hudson river:

he Telegraph will now perceive why the election Scott. We have not sought this crisis; it has the had a "consideration " in view."

CONGRESS.

The two Houses have been mainly engaged, dur-daties on Railroad iron.

h the Senate, on Friday, Mr. Rusk reported it the House bill amending the postage laws and postponed the river and harbor bill.

on Friday the House passed the Naval Appro-

The period fixed for adjournment—the 31st of agust-being near at hand, the two Houses an to have gone to work with a determination to through with all the important bills.

The Boston Post very properly notices the bits of the Republic and kindred prints, in the dowing terms, which we of the South like to see ming from that quarter, although it is hardly sessary to notice such futile tricks of the Scotts, whom we cannot adorn with the respectable me of true Whigs:

political effrontery and impudence in the course of enty years, but the attempt by the Southern Scott ess to prove Gen. Pierce an abolitionist, is a touch fond the sublime in lying—a flight unequalled by Roorback imagination that ever fertilised the field wiked an honest man's reputation—prints that have and six thousand. lignity could invent, in revenge for his unswervopposition to all their incendiary schemes—is an of imposition that we did not believe the most rate gamester would undertake."

THE WHIG PYRAMID. We give below an exact representation of the Seward pyramid, now being erected. scarcity of materials, says the Detroit Free res, must account for its limited dimensions, and rotten foundation is the cause of its ricketty dition. Here it is:

THE WEBSTER MOVEMENT. he Webster men of Georgia held a Convention and place, and efforts were made to reconcile two wings of the party, but without success. ply a denciency of food, fixely the potato crop in Ireland.

PIERCE AND KING CLUB.

Esq., in the Chair, and B. B. Smith, Secretary. M. Saunders, were unanimously adopted:

tions most clearly demonstrates the ability of the Democracy to carry the State for President and Vice President in November; and in order to ensure sucmation, John Kerr, Esq.—an able, popular and unbest exertions.

candidate for the Presidency, Franklin Pierce, a pat-riot and statesman who knows no North nor South, was met by Gov. Reid. The position of the candielectioneering scraps, made for special oc- and whose political history, in the language of a dis- dates has been so often declared that it is needless electioneering scraps, made to speak of it in detail. The election is over, but we must say that the libels on his po-but we must say that the libels on his po-tinguished Whig, "proves him to be capable, Lonest, and to speak of it in detail. The election is over, and the result has been not "a substantial whig victothousand pounds of good Hillsborough county beef and energetic opponent of anti-slavery fanaticism in all its forms and a firm and decided friend of the some markets—but will be mostly marked, all its forms and a firm and decided friend of the believe, but a triumph the most brilliant and success while parlance.) "not merchantable and no compromise"; and all attempts to detreet from his compromise"; and all attempts to detract from his ful for the Democratic party that has been made in announced, Col. Gorman, of Ind., will attend. character as the bold defender of the Constitutional our day. rights of the South, are alike disreputable and dishonorable to those engaged in them, and will be prop-erly understood by the Southern people and resented by them at the polls.

Resolved, That William R. King, the Democratic himself here and elsewhere to be a Free Suffrage candidate for Vice President, a native North-Caroli- man. Was he defeated by votes given in the Legnian, is equally entitled to our commendations and confidence, as every way worthy of the high station to any section of the State? He had never been in pub-

Resolved, That we recommend to our Democratic of the intrigues which blur the "fair names" of so brethren in every County to form Pierce and King many public men. Besides this, so much was he Clubs-to take steps for spreading before the people toasted, such was the enthusiasm of his friends, that useful political information, and to organize in such he seemed to look upon himself as the happy man

Resolved, That we cordially approve of the Mass Meeting proposed to be held by the Democracy of Wayne, at Goldsborough, on Thursday and Friday most gloriously sustained—by a majority amounting the 2d and 3d of September; that all the members of to more than FIVE THOUSAND votes. Besides, this Club who can make it convenient to attend, will a democratic majority on joint ballot in the Legisla- last night came in collision with the propeller O dens- do so; and that they invite their Democratic friends ture! If this be "a substantial whig victory", we burg, and sank in a half hour. There was a dense of the County generally to attend.

On motion, the President of the Club was requested to appoint a Committee of five, and, on consultation with said Committee, to appoint Committees of Vigilance throughout the County, said Committees of Vigilance to circulate documents among the people, expose the unfounded statements of the opposition, and impress upon all Republicans the importance of being at the polls to vote best feeling prevailed, in view of the late brilliant about the nomination of Scott than any other man. victory and the encouraging prospect which lies And now we want, said they, his course endorsed by J. NIXON, Pres't. before us.

B. B. SMITH, Sec'y.

EXCELLENT MAXIMS.

The following is a copy of the printed slip found in the pocket of the venerable Stephen A. Allen, drowned in the recent steamboat disaster on the

The Telegraph will now perceive why the election your hands cannot be usefully stapely will now perceive why the election your hands cannot be usefully stapely will now perceive why the election your hands cannot be usefully stapely will now perceive why the election your hands cannot be usefully stapely will now perceive why the election your hands cannot be usefully stapely will now perceive why the election your hands cannot be usefully stapely will now perceive why the election your hands cannot be usefully stapely will now perceive why the election your hands cannot be usefully stapely will now perceive why the election your hands cannot be usefully stapely will now perceive why the election your hands cannot be usefully stapely will now perceive why the election your hands cannot be usefully stapely will now perceive why the election your hands cannot be usefully stapely stap truth. Make few promises. Live up to your engageforced upon us by faint-hearted and soft-headed ments. Keep your own secrets, if you have any. us in the Baltimore Convention; and by some When you speak to a person, look him in the face. Good company and good conversation are the very sinews of virtue. Good character is above all things. Your character cannot be essentially injured except by your own acts. If any one speaks evil of you, let your life be so that none will believe him. Drink the past week, on the River and Harbor bill, no kind of intoxicating liquors. Ever live (misfor-Naval Appropriation bill, and the Wheeling ing the day. Make no haste to be rich, if you would On Friday last the Senate passed to a third readwith tranquility of mind. Never play at any kind of emble, yeas 81, nays 79. These bills provide indulging these Companies in making payment you are generous. Keep yourself innocent if you would be happy. Save when you are young, to to spend when you are old. Read over the above maxims at least once a week." CENSORIOUS AND TRUTHFUL. The New York mamendments, allowing newspapers not exceed- Herald is a trump. It throws out some of the three ounces to be sent to any part of the Uni-strongest blows against the two Presidential can-States for one cent—if paid in advance, half a didates, which whig and democratic papers copy. II. The amendments were agreed to. The Sen- We give the following truthful extract from that passed the postage and territorial bills on Fri- journal, which seems to be looking about the country for facts and every thing else. The Heraldsays: abolitionism and the higher law. On the other hand, we find the democratic party united-never more united-on their whole Baltimore ticket, platform and all; and it is manifest they will bring up their solid strength to the polls. Then, again, the Pittsburg Convention will take off to that third ticket the pure abolition, free soil, free farm, free rent, woman's rights, and direct intervention party; and we appre- dential canvass in this place on Thursday evening hend, from the unfortunate connection of all this sort of stuff and rubbish with the whig party heretofore, that Gen. Scott will be the loser by this movement, especially in Massachusetts, New York and Ohio.

Looking at this whole state of things, the impartial reader will be able to make his own deductions as to the probable result of the election. To say the least rity and his soundness upon the slavery question, and of it, the prospect is dismal enough for Gen. Scott. an exposure of the position of Gen. Scott which must

We omit our tabular statement of the vote for Governor until we can obtain the official vote, alsehood. And then to pretend to prove this by which we hope to do in the course of a week or him by the last Democratic Convention—no one who most unscrupulous abolition prints that ever so. Gov. Reid's majority will range between five BETTING ITEMS. The editor of the Tribune, soon all their incendiary schemes—is an after the nomination of Gen. Scott, came out with a as the hero of Lundy's Lane, induces us to publish timely article against betting. We (says the N. Y. a little anecdote, which the expeditionists to the Ni-Mirror) entirely agree with the views put forth by Mr. Greeley on the subject. Betting is a fool's argument; but at the same time, if men resort to such sport, it is well enough to keep the run of the banter-

At Saratoga, last week, a well known whig merchant of this city offered to bet $1500 that New Jersey offer was not accepted.

Another gentleman has bet $100 against $3000 that Scott will carry but one State in the Union. We have not yet heard of any even bets being made of the whig campaign by an accrostic, as follows:-

" H ope

"In "G unpewder."

DEMAND FOR BREADSTUFFS IN ENGLAND. It is A Scott Convention was in session at the same bility that there will be an increased demand for ply a deficiency of food, likely to be the result of the appointing Mr. Brownlow publisher of the United

The Democrats of the Pierce and King Club ed and disappointed the Whig party than any event held a meeting in Raleigh, at the Court House, on since the defeat of Mr. Clay in 1844. When Gov. Manly failed of a re-election in 1850, several causes last elections in this State have more utterly confoundwere assigned that seemed satisfactory to his triends and the school fund, and the odium attaching to the Resolved. That we congratulate the Democracy of "Raleigh clique," were considered a burden too heavy the State on the great victory achieved up the trium- for his shoulders. The discontents growing out of phant re-election of David S. Reid as Governor of the Convention movements in the West, and remonthe State, by a majority of near six thousand votes. strances against a Convention in the East, gave se-Resolved, That the general result of our recent elec- rious alarm to the Whige in the early part of this Smith, Seward, and Fitz Henry Warren—to induce cess it is only necessary that the Democrats should exceptionable gentleman-and of running far beyond be united, and that every one should put forth his democratic diplomacy in the splendid and magnifiest exertions.

Resolved, That we recognize in the Democratic tion." The canvass commenced in the East, and

Was Mr. Kerr defeated by the votes of eastern men? No-those who were known to be against a Convention presented a full, strong front for Mr. Kerr. Was he defeated by Free Suffrage? He declared islature or elsewhere which had made him odious to the very man for the times-oandid, bold, and clear a way as to have all the voters at the polls on the day who was raised up to redeem the State and bring and others. There was at least 25,000 persons presback the Whig Party to its former power. With all this to stimulate and incite both his party and himself, he is defeated, and David S. Reid sustained-

[Correspondence of the Boston Post.]

HALLOWELL, (ME.) Aug. 4, 1852.
George Evans, the Man that Nominated Scott, Repudiated in Maine. The whig congressional convenexertions to procure his (Evans) nomination, so as to avail. At the first ballot he received only thirty two votes out of one hundred and thirty four!

This is one of the important signs of the times. It teaches a lesson of the popularity of Ssott in Maine of no doubtful import, and foretells the result cold comfort" calculation, lies side by side with New Hampshire, and is true as steel for Pierce and King. The democracy of her hills, valleys and rock girted coast are awake and harnessed for the contest. Put down the Pine-tree State as sure as the Granite State for Young Hickory of the north.

GEN. SCOTT GONE OVER TO SEWARD BODILY. The Whigs of Ohio held a Ratification meeting at Ravenna on the 10th instant. The Scott club of that place was addressd at night by the Hon. Daniel R. Tilden, a Whig Free Soiler, who in the course of from Hon. B. F. Wade, Whig Senator at Washing-hand than lend it to the support of slavery So it would seem that Gen. Scott, like his friend and devoted ally, Greeley, is prepared to "defy, ex-ecrate and spit upon the platform," intended to guarantee southern rights. Gen. Scott would sooner cut war steamer Devastation, has taken into Charlottesoff his right hand than uphold the Constitution of the country—for that Constitution upholds and sustains the South and all her institutions. We do not ask the South if she can vote for Gen. Scott; but weask the friends of the Union everywhere, if they can give their support to one whose principles and policy would inevitably rend asunder our glorious brother-

"We find the Whig party crippled, dislocated, divided, cut up, and full of mutiny, on every side—broken in the back-bone, by the deadly weight of Thank Heaven there is so little fear that such a calamity will fall upon our beloved country.

Elector for the State at large, commenced the Presilast by an address before the Pierce and King Club. The speech was one of Mr. Dobbin's happiest efforts, and was received in a spirit of the utmost gratification and delight by the large assemblage of democrats who were present. The speech was a complete vin-"IMPUDENCE! We thought we had seen something Principles, at last, appear to be stronger than gun-His voice will soon be heard among the people of the State, and we assure our friends every where that no man of the party in North Carolina is more worthy than himself, of the high position bestowed upon > new born exultation of the Scottites, for Gen. Scott, agara meeting had better tell to one another, and thus brush up a little of genuine history :

"Gen. Jacob Brown commanded at the battle of the late Col. Miller, of New Hampshire, if he could storm the British battery on the height. " I'll try, sir," said Miller, and he did it, with a fearful loss to would go for Pierce and King in November. The his regiment. The British guns were turned upon themselves, the Americans held the position against the desperate charge of Gen. Drummond to retake it, and this was the work that saved us from disastrous defeat. The deed of Miller and his men is as immortal as his laconic reply to Brown." Don't forget then, who " commanded " at Lundy's Lane, and who won the battle. Baltimore Argus.

PLUGGING SHOT-HOLES. The whig electoral ticket for Virginia has at length been revised, and damages repaired-by whom we cannot say. Other names replace those of Messrs. Lacy and Chambliss; and two "electors at large" head the ticket. Who does the reader think these are? John M. Betrs, the great patron of the Wilmot proviso in this State, and binet! Botts will have the same luck in "heading?" on sale. The Wall street dealers pay full $150 for stated and private letters by the York, intimate a probasive exporting house in New York, intima Telegraphed for the Standard.

WASHINGTON, August 24, 1852, The House yesterday passed the naval appropriation bill, and the bill for the relief of the widow of Gen. Worth.

In the Senate, Judge Douglas advocated the principle of giving to the States the right to improve their harbors by laying tonnage duties on commerce.

Truman Smith replied to him. The efforts of the Scott Committee-Truman Hale to depline the Pittsburg nomination. have failed.

The l'emocratic Mass Meeting at Hillsburough, N. H. CONCORD, August 17th. Many strangers are already arriving to attend the Democratic meeting at lisborough, twenty-four miles distant, on Thursday With fair weather, the prospect is that as many people will be there as can procure conveyances .-Wright's mammoth tent has been erected. Twelve thousand pounds of good Hillsborough county beef Democratic Mass Meeting. CONCORD, N. H., August 19. A large party of New Yorkers passed through here to day, for Hillsborough, there being an immense Democratic gathering in that place. The farmers of Hillsborough county, with their wives and children, are out en masse, to attend the reunion of the 9th regiment there tomorrow. Gen. Pierce will preside, and Gov. Sevmour of Connecticut, with Col. Clemens of Alabama, Col. Selby, and other officers who served under

Gen. Pierce, will be in attendance. CONCORD, N. H., August 19. The Hillsborough meeting was addressed by John Van Buren. Senator Dix. Gov. Seymour of Connecticut, Col. Clemens, Steamboat Collision-Two Hundred and Fifty Lives Enz, N. Y. August 20. The steamer Atlantic last night came in collision with the propeller O densmay look for the " shadows" that the coming events fog prevailing at the time.

The Atlantic had on board an immense number of passengers, and it is estimated that about 250 of them perished-chiefly Norwegian emigrants. When the collision took place the passengers were all in bed. and the utmost consternation ensued, especially among the steerage passengers, many of them jumping over-

> The emigrants, who could not speak a word of Enrlish, or understand a word spoken to them, added to the horror of the scene by their cries of terror.

The cabin passengers, and those who could understand the exhortations of the Captain, were comparatively calm, and provided themselves with chairs, settees and beds. All who had patent life preservers, a number being on board the boat, were saved. The emigrants jumped overboard in their terror, and rush-

The water gained very rapidly, and the fires were soon extinguished, the boat sinking amid a scene of the most terrible and heart-rending confusion. At halt-past 2 o'clock, amid the wildest shricks from a thousand voices, the boat settled and sunk. The officers of the propeller Ogdensburg did all in their power to preserve the lives of the hundreds of human beings struggling in the waves, and many were rescued. The whole number picked up by the propeller was 250, and they were taken to Erie. A large number of these left at once on board the Sultana for Cleveland, and others came down in the cars for this city. They, of course, lost every thing, and most of them are completely destitute and homeless. at the same time mourning the loss of friends and re-

The whole number lost is estimated by some to be not less than 300. A large number of bodies had already been washed ashore. The Ogdensburg is considerably damaged, leaking badly, but succeeded in getting to port with the remainder of the Atlantic's passengers. The steamer Clayton was immediately despatched to the wreck, to save the property of the passengers.

Fate of Capt. Marcy-Contradictory Account. Louisville, Aug. 17. A despatch has just been received here stating that Captain Marcy and his command are safe at Fort Arbuckle.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 16. A letter from Fort Smith. dated the 1st August, reports that nothing further had been heard there respecting the alleged massacre of Captain Marcy and his command, and it was feared

More American Vessels Captured. BOSTON, Aug. 18th. The Halifax Sun, of the 16th. says that the steamer Telegraph, tender to the British Iowa Election. CLEAVELAND, Aug. 17th. Further returns leave no doubt of the election of Henn, Democrat. The Democrats have also carried their State ticket by 1200 majority. It is thought that the Legislature will likewise be strongly Democratic.

Arrival of the Crescent City-Later from Cuba.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19. The Crescent City arrived here today. We learn by her accounts that great excitement prevailed at Havana in consequence of a rumored insurrection among the people. The Creoles were thrown daily into loathsome dungeons. Incendiary documents were circulated in all quarters the most rigorous measures. Almost every prominent Creole family was under surveillance.

Yellow fever, small pox and cholera prevailed to an alarming extent. Almost every ship in harbor had some cases on board. Out of a company of 120 soldiers, 110 had died with these complaints, and in a chain gang of 900, every man met an untimely end. The Government was sending troops into the country.

Condition of the Markets.

NEW YORK, Aug. Cotton-Sales of 1,750 bales at steady rates. Flour-Sales of 13,500 bbls. at $4 18 for State, and 4 43 a $4 56 for Southern. Wheat-Sales of 20,000 bushels at $1 04 for Western white, and 94 cents for red. Corn-Sales of 30,000 bushels mixed at 69 a 701 cents. Pork-Sales of 300 bbls. at $17 75 for prime, and 18 .75 : $19 87 for mess. Lard—Sales of 300 bbls. at 11 cents. Sugar-Sales of 50 hhds. Muscovado at 5 cents. Coffee-Sales of 900 bags Rio at 8 a 9 cents. Tallow-Sales of 20,000 lbs. at 9 1 cents. Whicky-Sales of 2,500 bbls prison at 24 cents. NEW ORLEANS, August 18. Several bales of new g a decline. stalk of corn measuring sixteen feet seven inches. Esq., of Edgecombe County, and is a fair specimen consign her to a blissful immortality. Alas! how true of the lot, Mr. Pittman before cutting this, having it is, that "death loves a shining mark."

measured several stalks reaching over 15 feet. The "patch" contains some fifty acres, all very nearly alike. It was planted on the 22d of May, in bottom land, which had been in corn steadily for the last six years, and under cultivation since 1830. Edgecombe is hard to beat, and her example is giving an impulse to the agriculture of the State. Wilmington Journal. Kossuth was living in great privacy in London, at the last accounts, and attracted no public observation or attention whatever. He is said to express a great borror of, and aversion to, the Derby government, who, he fancies, would, if possible, betray him to the Austrian government. LAND WARRANTS. There is increased inquiry for Ballard Preston, one of the (in) famous Galphin en Limid Warrants in New York, with a short supply the Scott ticket he met with in "heading" Captain the 160 acres scrip; $75 for the 80 acres, and $37 50 Winchester Virginian. for the 40 acres. They re-sell at $154, $79, and Four sons of temperance, who went from Provi-

Air-" Lucy Neal."

Oh, cooney, cooney Scott, Come listen to my song, You've played the "fuse and feathers" game A little bit too long.

CHORUS-Ales, poor cooney Scott, 'Tis too late in the day : You never can be President, We hear the people say.

You think with Seward for your friend, You nothing have to fear; But the North will fire in your front, And the South into your rear.

With hat and feather, boots and spurs, You cut a mighty swell, And when with indignation fired, Strange stories you can tell.

The right of suffrage you'll put off, Twenty years or such a matter, Or let the poor not vote at all, Inclining to the latter.

Oh, cooney, cooney Scott, Your diet's sadly changed, From roast beef down to hasty soup-Your stomach is deranged. Your platform and your principles,

Are like your higher law; The constitution it declares, Is but a thing of straw. To powder, "fuss and feathers," The God-like Dan must stoop, Great intellect and statesmanship, Are laid aside for soup. The Compromise and Webster, Upon the shelf you've laid,

And Millard Fillmore kicked the beam, When in the balance weighed. Greely upon the platform spits,

With wrath and indignation : Yet says unto the Southern Whigs, Stand by our nomination. For forty years this government,

Has paid you lots of money,
And now you would be ?resident!
The thing looks rather funny. Then clear the track old boots and spurs, You're making too much fuss;

That Herald letter caves you in, Though signed "Americus." Come flap your wings and crow aloud, Old!cock a doodle doo! Then beat the drum and muster up, Your abolition crew. And when they make you President, You'll eat soup with a spoon, From a "hasty plate" which you can get, Of the man that's in the moon. The Empire boys are moving now, We cannot stop to talk;

Until we're sure that PIERCE and KING, This same old coon that looks so fat, How often have we slain, And when we think him dead and gone,

Then fire away my Empire boys, Let's give him one pull more; Remember how we laid him out. In eighteen forty-four.

Then up he pops again!

Come Democrats and shout with us, And make the welkin ring, For the Union and the Compromise-Hurrah for PIERCE AND KING. Alas, poor cooney, &c.

For the Standard. PHILANTHROPIC HALL, CHAPEL HILL,

August 21st, 1652. WHEREAS, we have heard of the death of our late esteemed fellow member, J. N. Daniel, who was removed from earth while yet in the spring time of ife and in the commencement of a career, that bid fair to be alike honorable to himself and useful to his country; and whereas, it devolves upon us to give some suitable expression to our sense of the loss, which we, together with his bereaued family, have sustained. Therefore be it Resolved, That, deeply sympathizing with his sorrowing friends, we do tender to them our sincere con- T. H. Selby's, No. 12, Fayetteville Street, where they dolence, that one, around whom their hopes so thickly will be pleased to see and serve their customers and clustered and for whem bright anticipations of future friends. eminence were so justly indulged, should be, thus early, snatched from their embrace. Resolved secondly, That we unfeignedly lament the untimely death of one who, combining talents and learning with the qualities of a virtuous heart, was already respected, loved and honored by all who knew him, and who promised to reflect credit on that society of which he was a cherished member. Resolved thirdly, I'hat in token of our sorrow and of our friendshishp for the memory of the deceased, we will wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty Resolved fourthly, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased, and also to the Raleigh Standard, Warrenton News, North Carolina Patriot, and Roanoke Republican, with a request that J. W. JOHNSTON, they be published. P. M. WHITE, W. C. CLANTON.

DIED.

At his residence in Wake County, on the 8th of August, Mr. WILLIAM WOMBLE, aged 71 years. He had been a consistent member of the Baptist Church for more ncendary documents were circulated in an quarters been a consistent member of the Daptist Chutch for me, 10 miles west of italega, on the Road, or five dollars for information by which I can ge his most rigorous measures. Almost every prominent his Creator, and breathed his last sweetly in the full exercise of a triumphant faith in his Redeemer. The deceased has left an aged widow and many children, and other relations, together with many friends to mourn his departure. Lamented husband, father and friend, farewell! Green be the sod that covers thy grave.! "Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for thou art with me, thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me." In Tarborough, on Saturday morning last, in the 23rd year of her age, Mrs. MARTRA C.; wife of William F. Dancy, Esq., and daughter of Gen. Wyatt Moye, of Aberdeen, Mi.

It is with a sad heart we announce the death of this truly estimable woman. Scarce two years have elapsed since she came to reside in our town, a blooming bride and a stranger to most of us. During that short period by the grace and simplicity of her manners, her sterling sense and rare domestic virtues, she gained the esteem of all who formed her acquaintance-nor did the admirable qualities of head and heart which she exhibited while in health desert her in the hour of affliction.

With the brightest earthly prospects and deeply imbued with all the tender emotions which none but a crop cotton have been received and sold at 121 cents, wife and a mother can feel, she yet had learned justly to appreciate "the things of time and sense"-hence her rillness although protracted and severe, was borne with THE VERY TALLEST CORN VET. We have received firmness and without a murmur; and she calmly and patiently awaited the event which she clearly foresaw, Lundy's Lane, and as the battle grew desperate, asked It was taken from a field belonging to Reddin Pittman, and which she meekly but confidently trusted would

> The remains of the deceased were followed to the grave by our entire population, and the gloom which pervaded the large concourse but too well attested the merit of her whose obsequies were performed.

WE are requested to announce DRURY KING, Esq. for Doorkeeper of the next House of Commons. Raleigh, Aug., 13, 1855.

UNION HOTEL.

no pains to render those who put up with her comfortable and agreeable. Her Stables will be supplied as usual. Her House is East of the Baptist Church. Raleigh, August 23, 1852.

Notice.

TOTICE is hereby given that application will be made to the next General Assembly to have the

To the Stockholders in the Greenville & Baleigh Plank-road Co. NOTICE is hereby given that all Stock subscribe for in this Company, on which the instalments hav not been paid, will be sold at Public Auction to the highest bidder, as provided for in the 11th Section of the Act incorporating the said Company.

Sale to take place at Greenville, on Thursday the 28d of September next. By order of the Board of Directors, at office Greenville, August 12th, 1852. JNO. A. SELBY, Clerk.

AN instalment of Two Dollars per Share will be required of the Stockholders of the Greenville and Raleight Plank Road Company, on Thursday, the 23d of September next.

By order of the Board of Directors. JNO. A. SELBY, Clerk. Greenville, August 12th, 1852.

Ten Dollars Reward.

OST on Monday, the 9th inst., between the Post-Office in Raleigh and Neuse River Oil Mills, a large black Pocket Book, with a blank-book attached, containing between twenty and twenty-five dollars, and a number of papers of no value to any one except the owner. The only bills recollected were one ter and two threes on the Bank of Cape Fear, and two ones on the Bank of Fayetteville, and two one dollar and a half bills on the Bank of the Union, Washington City. The above reward will be given if left at the Comptroller's office or A. B. VAUGHAN. with me at the Mill.

Laura-Shawsville, ? 934-4t. August 13, 1852.

CO-PARTNERSHIP. THE undersigned having this day formed a colourtnership for the purpose of conducting the CON-FECTIONARY BUSINESS in all its branches. The business will be carried on at the "old stand" of Sam'l

H. Marks, and will be known under the firm and style of SAM'L H. MARKS & SON, where they will manufacture and keep constantly on hand the nicest and purest Candies of every quality and flavor, and will be regularly supplied with the finest imported and domestic Cigars, and the cholcest Fruits in their proper seasons. Having made more extensive arrangements for the manufacture of Steam Refined Candies, they will be enabled to furnish much larger quantities, and purchasers may rely upon getting it with despatch.

All orders for goods will be thankfully received, packed in the best manner, and sent to any part of the United States.

SAM'L H. MARKS,

WM. A. MARKS. 69-tto. Petersburg, August 11, 1852.

NEW BOOKS.

TILDRETH'S Histor of the United States, 6th and concluding volume; Mysteries, or Glimpses of the Supernatural, containing accounts of the Salem Witchcraft;

The Cock-Lane Ghost, Rechester Rappings; the Strat-ford Mysteries, &.c. &c.; by Charles W. Elliott; Pierre, or the Ambiguities; by Harman Mellville; A Buck Eye Abroad, or Wanderings in Europe and in the Orient; by Samuel S. Cox; Mental Alchemy—a treatise on the Mind, Nervous System, Psychology, Magnetism, Mesmerism, and Diseases; by B. Brown Williams, M. D.

The Mother at Home; by John S. C. Abbott, very greatly improved and enlarged, with numerous engrav-H. D. TURNER. ngs. For sale by At the N. C. Bookstore. Raleigh, August 16, 1852.

Office of N. C. Railroad Company, ?

TOTICE is hereby given to the Stockholders and Contractors on the N. C. Railroad, that I will be at Concord on the 3d and 4th September; at Salisbury on the 8th and 9th : Lexington on the 10th : Jamestown on the 11th; Greensboro' from the 15th to the 21st; Graham on the 23d; Hillsborough on the 24th and 25th; Raleigh on the 27th and 28th; and at Goldsborough on the 30th September. It is very desirable to make settletoents with Stockholders, and especially with Contracmrs, at the times above set forth. CYRUS P. MENDENHALL. Sec'y and Treasurer.

August 9, 1852.

NEW FIRM.

79-2t.

THE Subscribers have associated themselves together under the Firm of SELBY & MURRAY. for the purpose of conducting the MERCANTILE BUSINESS in the City of Raleigh, at the old stand of

T. H. SELBY. D. CARSON MURRAY.

Raleigh, Aug. 16, 1852. From Raleigh to Norfolk.

A line of hacks will leave Sledges on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, on the arrival of the train from Raleigh, and arrive at Weldon in time for the cars of the Scaboard and Roanoke Railroad; and will leave Weldon on the same days and arrive at Sledges in time for the cars for Raleigh. Fare through from Raleigh to Portsmouth, $8. Through tickets can be obtained of the Agent here, and at Norfolk, and also of the Railroad W. R. PEPPER, Agent. Agents.

Raleigh, August 10, 1852.

Strayed or Stolen. LIROM the subscriber, at Shield's Mill, Orange County, on the 9th of August, a small dark bay horse, about four years old, with a blaze in his face, and he has a scar under one of his eyes caused by a large tooth. One or two of his feet white.

I will give ten dollars reward for said horse, deliveredto me, 16 miles west of Raleigh, on the Hillsborough neighborhood of William Robinson's, Orange, THOMAS MARCOM, of Wake.

North Carolina Manufactures. BATTLE & SON, Are still manufacturing, at the ROCKY MOUNT MILLS, N. C. about 300,000 lbs. Cotton Yarns, per annum (equal to the best Georgia Yarns,) which they will deliver to Merchants free of charge, at New York prices. Orders addressed to Battle, & Son, Rocky Mount,

N. C., will receive prompt attention. 29-1y: February, 1852. New Music. UST received at the MUSIC STORE, a lot of new and fashionable Music, embracing, Friendship Polka, Wait for the Wagon, Low-backed Car, Nelly Bly, &c. &c. Catalogues of the Music can be seen at the North Carolina Music Store.

TOPOSALS will be received until the 25th inst. for erecting on the Market Square, a one story brick building, 25 by 40 feet, for an Engine House, Guard House, and Mayor's Office Separate proposals will be received for the brick work and wood work. SEATON GALES,) THOS HOGG, s. W. WHITING, Raleigh, August 18, 1852. Wanted,

A OUT a family would be preferred. The place is healthy, and liberal wages will be given. Apply soon to the Editor of the Standard, Wake, August 17, 1852.

D. G. LOUGEE; DEALER IN CLOCKS, WATCHES, AND FARCY GOODS Also, Confectionary. Cegars, and Varieties. Corner of West Centre and Chestnut St.

GOLDSBORO', N. C. Articles in his line bought and sold on Commission. Cash paid for Old Gold. ORDERS promptly despatched Watches, Clocks, and Jewelry neatly repaired. April 3, 1852.

BLANK WARRANTS, And Court Blanks, for sale at the Standard Office.

MRS. HALL, thankful for past favors, respectfully asks a continuance of the same. She intends to spare Charter of the City of Raleigh amended. WM. DALLAS HAY WOOD. Intendant.

Raleigh, August 23d, 1852.

Macon last week, and nominated for the Presiey, Daniel Webter, and for the Vice Presidency, boasts of the Trioune, which are backed by housing boasts of the Trioune, which are backed by housing but the editor's "say so," insists that it should read :—" We—Hope—In—Gas." Proved the platform of the Whig National Conation; and Electors for the State and an Execu-E Committee were appointed, which it is the intention of the Democracy of the lie life, and in political affairs was represented to be country to elevate him.

Telegraph says of us-" His movement, if it for Pierce and King. The President has named san thing at all, can only have the effect of the following gentlemen as the Committee of five, e electoral vote of North Carolina to Gen. to wit, James T. Marriott, Quentin Busbee, Walter make him the standard-bearer of the Scott forces.

"Keep good company or none. Never be idle. If your hands cannot be usefully employed, attend to the bill for the relief of the Manchester and game of chance. Avoid temptation, through fear you his speech, introduced and read a letter just received imington Railroad Company; and on the same may not withstand it. Earn money before you spend it. Never run into debt unless you see a way to get in the House, the bill for the relief of the out of it again. Never borrow, if you can possibly high and Gaston Railroad Company was laid on avoid it. Do not marry until you are able to support powder-and there lies the whole issue.

on the general result of the fight between the two Presidential candidates. A western paper undertakes to illustrate the basis

A whig who has been compelled to hear every third whig he has met since the nomination swea off from its support, but who yet reads daily the boasts of the Tribune, which are backed by nothing

A DEMOCRATIC VICTORY SUBSTANTIAL ENOUGH. The

The following Resolutions, offered by Gen. R. Why such a disaster had betation the party. The following Resolutions, offered by Gen. R. Western Turnpike," the blunder about the "basis" why such a disaster had befallen the party. The

Favetleville Carolinian.

tion, held in Augusta yesterday, repudiated George Evans, and nominated Samuel P. Benson, of Winthrop, for congress. Evans' friends had made great Two Scott ratification meetings had been gotten up on the Kennebec, ostensibly for Scott glorification, but really to glorify Mr. Evans. His friends urged the whigs of Kennebec. Then, the statement has been made and urged against him, that he is unpopular in the district from which in former years he received so many testimonials of favor. Said they, it is absolutely indispensable that Mr. Evans should once more go to congress as Maine's favorite son, in view of his past services, and his present position as the standard bearer of Gen. Scott. But it was of no ton, in which Senator Wade writes: "I have this day had a conversation with Gen. Scott, in which he declared he would sooner cut off his right the report was too true.

TIMOTHY.

hood, and involve our beautiful land in all the horrors of civil and servile war? Let any man seriously contemplate the results that turn away with sickening horror at the picture.

PIERCE AND KING CLUB. Hon. James C. Dobbin,

Fayetteville Carolinian. WHO WON THE BATTLE OF LUNDY'S LANE? The

Tyler. " He has personal vanity enough to damn seven